

BLG Newsletter for Week of December 15

Thank You – to Becky and John for sending photos of their trees

- to John, Sandra, and Sherry for driving truck to Milner to dump our junk, then to Tom's place in Lantzville to load up with chicken manure, AND then unloading at BLG some time after the workparty was over on Wednesday
- and to Joan H. for sending the following....

Tomato Testimonial -

Oh happy day! Dec. 7. A heritage tomato courtesy of BLG efforts. Yum. Yum. With patience, they do ripen. Better tasting than anything in grocery store, even having been picked green and late in the season.

Gratitude.

Still Wanted: It would be great if volunteers could bring in some small-size tubs (250 ml) with lids as we find these handy for many things.

"Tis the Season" –

Becky says, "This one is small and a few years old, but reliably brightens our home each year 😊"

And when Becky heard that John's tree is 14' this year, she encouraged him to send me this photo, which he has simply entitled "The Tree".

And this is Pat's tree, made by her brother Bill in Yellowpoint, out of scavenged dead arbutus branches.

If you would like to share your Christmas Tree in the newsletter, send it to Pat.
